Lighting of the Candles

We light a candle in the name of the Maker,
Who lit the world and breathed the breath of life for us...
We light a candle in the name of the Son,
Who saved the world and stretched out his hand to us...
We light a candle in the name of the Spirit
Who encompasses the world and blesses our souls with yearning ...

We light three lights for the trinity of love:
God above us, God beside us, God beneath us:
The beginning, the end, the everlasting one.

“Are you for us
or for our enemies?”

“Neither,” he replied,
“but as commander
of the army of the Lord
I have now come.”

Then Joshua fell
face-down to the ground
in reverence.

(Joshua 5:13-15)

Sharing | Where is Christ in the Conflict? | Rwanda Genocide

“Apart from that immense silence I can recall two things very vividly about those first moments inside Rwanda: there were thousands of yellow and white flowers, peeking out from the grassy wilderness, and hovering above them wave after wave of white butterflies dancing in the indescribable quiet of a country where nobody was home”

Ferga Keane, a journalist entering Rwanda after the massacre and the mass refugee exodus.

Do not take advantage of foreigners who live among you in your land. Treat them like native-born Israelites, and love them as you love yourself.

Remember that you were once foreigners living in the land of Egypt.
I am the Lord your God. (Leviticus 19:33-34)

Implication

what difference does this make for peace-making in a polarised world?

RESPONSE?

Implication & Application

*How do we live as a be-attitude
community,
brokering
shalom?*

... rich and repetitive actions we do,
over time and often together,
which engage our senses and imagination,
reminding us of God's presence and aiming us at His Kingdom

RATION CHALLENGE

HUNGRY... FOR CHANGE?

Take the Act for Peace Ration Challenge
and show refugees we're with them,
not against them.

Eat the same rations as a Syrian refugee during Refugee Week – just a small amount of rice, flour, lentils, chickpeas, beans, fish and oil – and get sponsored to do it. The money you raise will provide food, medicine and education for refugees and support other communities around the world threatened by conflict and disaster.

We'll send you the same food rations a refugee receives in a refugee camp. Find out more and sign up today:
