Open Table

The table of bread is now to be made ready.
It is the table of company with Jesus,
and all who love him.

It is the table of sharing with the poor of the world, with whom Jesus identified himself.

It is the table of communion with the earth,
in which Christ became incarnate. ...

So come to this table, you who have much faith and you who would like to have more;
you who have been here often and you who have not been for a long time;
you who have tried to follow Jesus,
and you who have failed.

Come.

It is Christ who invites us to meet him here. ...

Loving God, through your goodness
we have this bread and wine to offer, which has come forth from the earth and human hands have made.

May we know your presence in the sharing,
so that we may know your touch and presence in all things. ...

We celebrate the life that Jesus has shared among his community through the centuries, and shares with us now.

Made one in Christ and one with each other,
we offer these gifts and with them ourselves,
A single, living act of praise.

Amen.

The Summer Palace

Make a little garden in your pocket.
Plant your cuffs with radishes and rocket.
Let a passion fruit crawl up your thigh.
Grow some oregano in your fly.

Make a steamy compost of your fears.
Trickle irrigate your life with tears.
Let your troubled mind become a trellis.
Turn your heart into a summer palace.

What's your favourite bush food?

Any ethics surrounding 'scrumping'?

Given your gardening efforts, what colour is your thumb and why?

How, if at all, does your worldview shape how you cultivate the land and consume food?

How might horticultural wisdom (weeding, watering and fertilising) inform holiness and pursuit of a healthy and fruitful life?

Following Jesus' metaphor, in what sense is God's Kingdom a humble seed planted in a field, a home for the wandering birds looking to alight?

'Then God said, "Look! I have given you every seed-bearing plant throughout the earth and all the fruit trees for your food.' (Gn 1:29)

Here is another illustration Jesus used: “The Kingdom of Heaven is like a mustard seed planted in a field. It is the smallest of all seeds, but it becomes the largest of garden plants; it grows into a tree, and birds come and make nests in its branches.” (Mt 13:31-32)

HYMN

Little flower let us pray
The world gets madder every day
There's little I can understand
The anxious hearts, the broken land.
All I want to know is you
Your leaves so green, your petals blue
Your beautiful humility
Are made of love and sanity.
Little flower let us pray
Together in this childish way
For there within your petals curled Lies wisdom that would heal the world.
